

LOUISVILLE ASSOCIATION OF INSURANCE PROFESSIONALS
MEMBERSHIP MEETING – SEPTEMBER 2009

The meeting was held on September 15, 2009 at the Breckinridge Inn. Ruth Ann Herzog, President, called the meeting to order at 5:39 PM. The collect was read by Martha Woodside and dinner was served.

There were 19 members & guests present. The guests were Andrea Stockelman and Eileen Hammer, both from Seneca Risk Services and Cliff Elgin from Wells Fargo Insurance Services.

Kate Greater introduced our speaker for the evening, Mr. Cliff T. Elgin, Senior Vice President of Wells Fargo Insurance Services of Kentucky. Mr. Elgin gave an overview of the differences in domestic and foreign insurance coverages, employee accidents and compensation methods. His program was titled "The Paradox of International Insurance". It was very interesting and gave us all something to think about.

Ruth Ann thanked everyone for their contributions to our ongoing charity project, the Cane Run corridor of schools. School supplies and backpacks have been donated by our members. Ruth Ann also asked for monetary contribution for the purchase of more backpacks, as these are used in conjunction with the Dare to Care food program for these children.

Michelle Mattingly gave her legislative report and advised all to keep in contact with their congressman regarding the Health Care reform of President Obama.

Our treasurer has resigned due to a job change. Our new treasurer will be Terry Swinford, with the help of Linda Harp. Linda is also chairing our Holiday Fundraiser of Christmas wreaths, centerpieces and door sprays. It is now time to order!

Our October meeting will be held at the Wells Fargo office and will be a membership meeting featuring chili and soup. Please plan to attend.

Linda Harp won the door prize donated by Myrtle Rose of American Mobile Glass. The meeting adjourned at 3:33 PM.
